Gregg,

I've let time slip by, but I wanted to take this moment to express our appreciation to you and your staff for their assistance with the auction items. I greatly appreciated your communication as we planned for viewing and picking up the items. I also want to thank the library those individuals who elect to use a public auction for such matters to dispose of unneeded items. From the prices we paid, I would guess that the auction didn't bring much of a return to the library, so I particularly thought you might appreciate that the material was put to very good use. I've attached a photo we put together for our church newsletter showing the former and present office furniture. Our administrative assistant loves it - she raves to me every time we are in the office. Thanks for making this possible.

Appreciatively,

Barry Johnson
