

Today's CD:

Tiny Tunes by Carole Peterson

This week's literacy tip:

"Sing to your baby. It doesn't matter how well you sing. Hearing you sing helps your baby begin to learn language. Babies love the patterns and rhythms of songs. And even young babies can recognize specific melodies once they've heard them. Open, shut them. Open, shut them. Give a little clap!

Open, shut them. Open, shut them. Put them in your lap

Creep them, creep them, creep them, creep them, right up to your chin!

Open wide your smiling mouth, but do not let them in!

Creep them, creep them, creep them, creep them past your cheeks and chin.

Open wide your smiling eyes. Peeking in, boo!

Creep them, creep them, creep them, creep them, right down to your toes.

Let them fly up in the air, and BOP you on the nose!

Repeat first two lines.
